Dear Skipper:

The following is a report on one of our Scouters who should be put on the Confidential File. Here is the information:

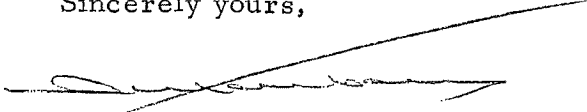

His name is Warren R. Foley, 956 Ocean Street, Baldwin Long Island, New York - presently registered as Assistant Scoutmaster of Troop 179, Baldwin.

He has a police record of arrests - September 18, 1967 for possession of obscene literature and second degree sodomy - September 26, 1967, first and second degree sodomy and impairing the morals of a minor.

He is 24 years old, Height 6'1", weight 195, blond, fair complexion, single, interested in fire departments, no distinguishing characteristics, served in the army and suffered a leg injury in Vietnam. At the present time he is a truck driver and according to information has a relatively low I.Q.

I trust this will be enough information to take care of this.

Sincerely yours,

D. W. Teisberg

SUBJECT: Warren Raymond Foley

Dear Grant:

Thank you for sending us the confidential record sheet and the newspaper clipping for the above named individual. In checking this material out carefully with our records, we discovered an individual with a similar name on our file who was previously in New York state.

We find that an identification questionnaire had been sent to your council in April of 1983 and the answers sent back to us indicated that this man was not similar to the one on our file. We now have real concern related to this and believe the individual may be the same person on our file.

I hope no poor relations exist in your council because of this problem which you have encountered. We are, however, adding the material which you sent to the same individual's file and believe this will strengthen our refusal of registration at a later date.

Sincerely,

Scout leader gets probation for fondling boy

By JEFF TESTERMAN
St. Petersburg Times Staff Writer

NEW PORT RICHEY — A New Port Richey man who volunteered his time to work with Cub Scouts was sentenced by Circuit Judge Edward H. Bergstrom Jr. to 15 years' probation Monday for fondling one of his 8-year-old charges.

Warren Raymond Foley, 39, pleaded guilty to the crime. He had previously been convicted of sodomy with a juvenile.

The state's prosecutor argued that Foley should spend at least a year behind bars because of his background.

But because of new state sentencing guidelines, the judge was unable to consider the previous sex crime.

AT A HEARING Jan. 18, Assistant State Attorney Michael Halkitis said Foley took the 8-year-old Cub Scout on a camping trip to Homosassa Springs and fondled the boy's sexual organs through the child's trousers.

On Oct. 29, according to court documents, Foley, a security guard who lives with his parents, repeated the incident at the boy's New Port Richey home.

After being arrested Nov. 18, sheriff's deputies reported, Foley admitted fondling the boy and said he had done the same thing previously with two other boys. "The defendant stated that he has a problem that causes him to get the urge to fondle these young boys and needed help," Foley's arrest report says.

The state and Foley's appointed public defender subsequently agreed to a negotiated plea that would keep Foley out of jail.

But at the Jan. 18 hearing, Halkitis said that plea had been negotiated before he had learned of Foley's conviction in New York on the charges of sodomy with a juvenile.

At Foley's sentencing Monday, Public Defender Keith Hammond told Bergstrom that his client "was truthful, had admitted his problem," and was regularly attending psychological counseling sessions at the Human Development Center.

BUT ASSISTANT State Attorney Gary Davis then brought forth information gathered in a background investigation on Foley that he thought was cause to deny probation. Davis said Nassau County, N.Y., detectives informed him that Foley had been working with Boy Scouts at the time of his sodomy arrest 20 years ago.

"This man certainly deserves a year in county jail," Davis said. "And even that's not enough."

The judge sentenced Foley to 15 years' probation and ordered him not have any contact with children 16 or younger without the consent of his probation officer. Bergstrom also ordered Foley to continue his psychological counseling until he had received "the maximum benefit," and to perform 140 hours of community service.

Re: Warren Foley
Ass't. Scoutmaster, Tr. 600

Dear Mr. Davenport:

Thank you for your response to our identification questionnaire concerning Warren Foley. From the information you provided, it is certain that your Mr. Foley is the same individual as one on whom we have information. We therefore regret to inform you that we cannot accept Mr. Foley's application.

When informing Mr. Foley about this, simply tell him that the National Council does not wish to accept his registration in the Boy Scouts of America. If Mr. Foley should raise any questions as to reason, you might indicate to him that registration in the Boy Scouts of America is a privilege and not a right and that the National Council reserves the prerogative to accept those individuals it feels will best serve the interests of the organization.

We are herewith enclosing a credit notice of $2.00. Please delete Mr. Foley's name from your records.

Sincerely,

Earl L. Krall, Director

Re: Warren R. Foley

Dear Don:

Your letter dated December addressed to Mr. Wilson concerning one Warren R. Foley has been referred to me for reply since our Service handles situations of this nature. We have placed this information in our file.

However, although you indicate that Mr. Foley is currently registered as Assistant Scoutmaster of Troop 179 in Bladwin, we can find no record of his registration. Is it possible that he may have been serving in an unregistered capacity?

In order to have as much supporting information as possible in our files, we would very much appreciate your obtaining for us, if possible, a copy of the police report concerning Foley's arrests, or any newspaper clippings that may be available regarding this situation. This additional material is most important for future reference and identification purposes. Thanks for your help.
