Re: ~~Thomas Ondrik and
John F. Poorman~~

Dear John:

We have just received your letter to Skipper Wilson concerning Thomas Ondrik and John Poorman.

The application for Mr. Poorman was in the file and we had no problem locating it. However, the one for Thomas Ondrik is someplace between our service, and either subscription or I.S.M. This would indicate that we recently processed his registration. You may now have, or soon will have his registration certificate. If this is so, please return it to us. As soon as his application is located we will cancel his registration and if it was recently submitted, we will refund his fee.

The information contained in your letter is certainly sufficient, however, I am enclosing a confidential record sheet for both of them. Please fill in the remaining items which are important, such as their previous Scouting experience, education, employment and any other information which would be helpful to us in identifying either one of them should they try to register in Scouting sometime in the future.

Sincerely yours,
PERSONNEL DIVISION
